International University for Graduate Studies

BELIEFS

- There is a need for doctoral degrees that are affordable, individually paced, possess academic integrity and allow doctoral candidates to continue to meet their other obligations.
- All relevant post-graduate credits from accredited institutions should be accepted for transfer.
- Most post-baccalaureate credits required for licensing and certification should be accepted for transfer.
- Graduate students should have the right to take post-baccalaureate courses at various institutions that serve their professional and personal objectives.
- Graduate students seeking degrees should be required to take, or to have previously taken, the traditional number of post-baccalaureate credits required by major universities.
- Graduate students should be individually recognized and respected for their professional and academic accomplishments.
- Students with professional maturity and relevant life experience are the best candidates to pursue graduate studies.

Accreditation from a sovereign country is the highest form of accreditation.

In addition, the University has had:

- Approval for tuition reimbursement and payment from major U.S. hospitals, unions, government agencies and private institutions;
- Co-sponsored continuing-education programs with U.S. and International certification, licensing agencies and organizations;
- Graduates who are in private practice and hold or have held key positions in many academic, government and private institutions.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO EARN THE DEGREE?

On a part-time basis, most candidates are anticipated to complete their degree requirements within eighteen months. The determining criteria are dedication and the candidate's previous academic and professional portfolio. Students who concurrently are enrolled in an institute and the doctoral program may graduate both simultaneously.

TESTIMONIALS

"My doctorate has enabled me to expand my professional activities, including teaching, participating in conferences, and mentoring. I am excited to be a graduate of IUGS, and hope to share that enthusiasm with others contemplating a degree from IUGS."

Margery C. Quackenbush, Ph.D.

Site Visitor, American Board for Accreditation Psychoanalysis, Administrator/Director, National Association for Advancement of Psychoanalysis.

"Completing my doctoral dissertation allowed me the creative challenge of the writing that I desired. Great satisfaction came from bringing my many years of experience in this field into a creative narrative; this became my dissertation. I feel more self-respect, self-esteem, and a sense of joy. I finally gave myself the time to immerse in this creative process. Thank you for the opportunity to do this and treating me with warmth and respect in the process"

Penelope A. Tarasuk, Ph.D.

Jungian Psychoanalyst/Psychotherapist, Private practice in South Deerfield & Cambridge, MA Training Board of the C.G.Jung Institute of Boston, Ltd. 2006-2011, Chair of the Curriculum Committee 2009-2011, faculty, and supervising analyst.Pacifica Graduate Institute, Dissertation out side reader, 2003, 2011

"I never experienced the level of intellectual discourse and enthusiasm from students as I did when I taught at IUGS. What you offer your doctoral candidates is to be applauded."

Stanley W. Thompson, Ed.D.
